Is your dog crate trained? What is their behavior in the crate?
Have they ever broken out of a crate before?

How many people live in your home? Please list any kids ages.
How does the dog act towards everyone in the house?

Are there any other pets in the home? If so, what are they and how does the dog act towards them?

When & where/how did you get your dog?

What are your complaints/struggles that you are currently having with your dog?

What are the goals that you have for your dog?

What do you feed your dog, and how much are they fed a day?

Has your dog ever shown ANY amount of aggression? If so, what was the situation & what was the dog's behavior? Did the dog bite anyone?

What do you use to walk your dog, and how does the dog walk? Does he/she pull? What is their reaction to seeing other dogs, people, kids, bikes, cars, etc?

Has your dog ever shown any signs of guarding things that are theirs? Such as toys, food, bones, etc? If yes, what is their behavior when you take the item away from them?

What is the schedule like on a typical day with your dog? Where does your dog sleep at night? Where do they stay when you go to work? What activities do you do together on a regular basis?

How did you hear about me?

In order to see big changes in your dog, you'll need to be willing to make big changes in your daily routine to help make your dog more successful. Are you willing to make changes such as sleeping in the crate at night and taking the dog on structured walks? Are you willing to stick to a training plan for the first 30 days before starting to increase freedoms?
